Section F

Information Collection Notice

1. The College collects personal information, including sensitive information about students and parents or guardians before and during the course of a student's enrolment at the College. This must be in writing. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the College to provide schooling to the student and to enable them to take part in all the activities of the College.
2. Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the College's legal obligations, particularly to enable the College to discharge its duty of care.
3. Laws governing or relating to the operation of a school require certain information is collected and disclosed. These include relevant Education Acts, and Public Health and Child Protection laws.
4. The collection of nationally consistent student background characteristic information is used for compulsory national reporting, further details available in the College Privacy Policy located on the website.
5. Health information about students is sensitive information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act. We may ask you to provide medical reports about students from time to time.
6. The College from time to time discloses personal and sensitive information to others for administrative and educational purposes, including to facilitate the transfer of a student to another school. This includes to other schools, government departments, Catholic Education Office, the Catholic Education Commission, the College's local Diocese and the parish and schools within other Dioceses, Medical Practitioners, and people providing services to the College, including specialist visiting teachers, coaches, volunteers and counsellors.
7. Personal information disclosed by student may be provided to relevant external bodies as per Child Protection laws.
8. The College may store personal information in the 'cloud' which may mean that it resides on servers which are situated outside Australia.
9. The College's Privacy Policy sets out how parents or students may seek access to personal information collected about them. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the College's duty of care to the student, or where students have provided information in confidence.
10. The College Privacy Policy also sets out how you may complain about a breach of privacy and how the College will deal with such a complaint. You can also refer to the College Concerns and Complaints Policy, located on the website.
11. As you may know the College from time to time engages in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. It may also be disclosed to organisations that assist in the College's fundraising activities solely for that purpose. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
12. On occasion, information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and similar news is published in College newsletters, magazines, on our website and in the media.
13. The College will obtain permission from the student's parent or guardian, via the College's Publication and Media Permission Agreement, to include photographs or other identifying material in promotional material for the College or otherwise make it available to the public such as on the internet or in the media. This Agreement will be valid for the duration of the student's enrolment at the College as well as for two years after their departure from the College.
14. If you provide the College with the personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the College and why, that they can access that information if they wish and that the College does not usually disclose this information to third parties.
