How many subjects do I choose?

- In addition to your core subjects (see table below), you have the opportunity to study subjects that you particularly enjoy but have also consolidated. These subjects may help you achieve your long-term goals. See the requirements below for specific on the number of units needed in Year 12.
- If you are planning to do VCAL you will need to download and complete the VCAL form. Students doing VCAL will also need to select a VET option. Please discuss with Mr Tom Inverarity if there are any queries t.inverarity@damascus.vic.edu.au. Students thinking of VCAL will need to tick the box below for VCAL.
- Students thinking of doing a VET subject will also need to tick the box below. Note that VET subjects can be completed in either the VCE or VCAL pathway.
- Please read the FAQ- Subject Selection and Pathways 2019 for specific information related to VCE, VET and VCAL.

Requirements:

VCE

- To earn your VCE at Damascus College, we recommend students to complete 13 units in Year 11 (of which 1 unit of Religion and Society and 2 units of English are compulsory) and 10 units in Year 12 (of which 2 units are English).
- VTAC (Victorian Tertiary Admissions Centre) advises that for the calculation of the ATAR (Australian Tertiary Admission Rank), students must satisfactorily complete both Unit 3 and Unit 4 of an English sequence.
- Three sequences of Unit 3 and 4 studies in addition to the sequence chosen from the English group. These sequences can be from VCE studies and/or VCE VET programs.

VCAL

- To earn your VCAL at Damascus students undertake studies in four curriculum strands: Literacy and Numeracy skills, Industry Specific Skills, Work Related Skills and Personal Development Skills. Students undertake structured workplace learning as part of the VCAL Work related Skills unit and must complete VET as part of the certificate.

Other Requirements:

- At Damascus College, all students regardless of pathway choice will do one unit of Religion and Society in Year 11 spread over 2 semesters.
