

Q&A

WITH DAMASCUS COLLEGE PRINCIPAL MR STEVEN MIFSUD

Steven Mifsud joined Damascus College in Term 3 2022 and so far, has spent much of his time getting to know students and staff, and is now extending an invitation to meet you, our valued Damascus families.

A bit about Steven:

- Grew up in St Albans, Melbourne
- Is one of nine children of Maltese migrants
- Is married to Nancy and has two sons, Anton and Luca
- His first job out of school was a Coles Variety Checkout operator
- His most recent job, prior to Damascus, was Deputy Principal, Student Wellbeing at Mount St Joseph's College in Altona
- Has been working in education for 28 years
- Loves good coffee and cycling
- Is enjoying his tree change in Ballarat, although still acclimatising to the weather

This is your unique opportunity to meet and learn more about Steven, to hear about his initial observations and his vision for this community. Feel free to ask him any burning questions you have, direct to the principal.

Thursday 24 November 2022 | 7pm at Damascus College

Registrations are essential via www.trybooking.com/CEEAR by Monday 21 November 2022

BE MY BEST

damascus.vic.edu.au