

CHILD SAFE GOVERNANCE POLICY

Rationale

Damascus College Limited Board (The Board) is committed to:

- zero tolerance of child abuse;
- listening to and empowering children and young people; and
- keeping children and young people safe.

The Board maintains governance oversight of the school Damascus College which operates primarily from 1412 Geelong Rd, Mt Clear. The Board executes its management responsibility through the Principal and the Leadership Team of the College to ensure Damascus College is safe for children and young people and is a place where children and young people can flourish.

The Damascus College Limited Child Safety policies, procedures, and documents are developed by the College Leadership Team and approved by the Board. The members of the association have visibility of the development and approval process. The documents provide the principles and key elements of Board's approach to managing its responsibilities and obligations for the care, safety, and welfare of students at Damascus College to minimise the risk of the abuse of children and young people. Damascus College Policies and procedures have been developed in collaboration with the framework established within Catholic Education Ballarat from the Victorian Regulatory and Qualifications Authority guidelines.

Damascus College is committed to supporting its schools to take a proactive role in the care, wellbeing and protection of children and young people.

The Board has particular responsibilities for the safeguarding of children and young people as required by Ministerial Order No. 870: Child Safe Standards – Managing the risk of child abuse in schools (MO 870). This places accountability for managing the risk of child abuse with the Board. Consistent with MO 870, the Board, requires Damascus College owned and operated by Damascus College Limited to have appropriate arrangements to regulate the conduct and decisions of school staff for the benefit of its students. These arrangements include implementing and complying with the Board's Child Safe Policies and having clear and comprehensive procedures and reporting mechanisms. The objective is for the Board, and the wider school community is to be confident in the school's capacity to make and implement appropriate decisions, with child safety as a guiding principle.

The Board is cognisant of the National Principles for Child Safe Organisations (National Principles) that has been endorsed by the Council of Australian Governments (COAG). The Board understands that the Victorian Government is currently reviewing the Victorian Standards to better align with the National Principles, however in the interim the Ministerial Order 870: Child Safe Standards – Managing the risk of child abuse in schools (MO 870) remain in operation and mandatory for Damascus College. Therefore, our Child Safety Standards policies and procedures reflect the current requirements in Victoria being the MO 870.

This policy demonstrates the strong commitment of the Board to the care, safety and wellbeing of all children and young people in accordance with its obligations as the governing authority of Damascus College. It outlines the policies approved by the Board and the procedures and strategies adopted to keep children and young people safe from harm.

This policy takes into account relevant legislative requirements within the state of Victoria, including the specific requirements of MO 870 relevant to the obligations of a governing authority of schools.

Principles

Gospel values and the principles of Catholic Social Teaching are reflected in Damascus College policies for the care, safety, and welfare of students. These values influence both Board actions and response to promoting environments that are child safe:

The Code of Conduct has been developed to promote the principles laid out in the Integrity in the Service of the Church, a document produced by the National Committee for Professional Standards, 2011. A Committee of the Australian Catholic Bishops & the Leaders of Religious Institutes in Australia. A full explanation of the Guiding Principles is contained in the publication: National Committee for Professional Standards, 2011, "Integrity in the Service of the Church", September 2011. file \(catholic.org.au\)

The five Guiding Principles are:

- Commitment to Justice and Equity
- Upholding the dignity of all people and their right to respect
- Commitment to safe and supportive relationships
- Reaching out to those who are poor, alienated or marginalised
- Striving for excellence in the performance of their work

An integral part of fulfilling these guiding principles is an absolute commitment to child safety and adherence to the Child Safe Standards, as outlined in Ministerial Order No. 870.

The Child Safe Standards are;

Standard 1: governance and leadership

- Strong and clear governance arrangements allow leaders to ensure child safety is a focus within their organisation.

Standard 2: clear commitment to child safety

- Demonstrate your commitment to child safety by documenting how your organisation will meet its duty of care and responsibilities.

Standard 3: code of conduct

- Establish clear expectations for appropriate behaviour with children.

Standard 4: human resource practices

- Develop and implement human resource practices that reduce the risk of child abuse occurring within your organisation.

Standard 5: responding and reporting

- All staff and volunteers must understand their role in keeping children safe, including their reporting responsibilities.

Standard 6: risk management and mitigation

- To reduce the likelihood of harm, organisations must think about and define the risks.

Standard 7: empowering children

- Children have a right to be heard and have their concerns and ideas taken seriously.
