SHINING LIGHT AWARD - FOR INSPIRING ALUMNI

Our alumni are the wind beneath our wings. Let us celebrate and take inspiration from the achievements of our past students. Empowering our current students to soar.

Please help inspire our current and future students. Nominate a Shining Light.

The Damascus College Shining Light award celebrates the outstanding achievements of extraordinary Damascus College alumni in a diverse range of fields and areas of endeavour. The award recognises alumni whose service has made a significant contribution to the local, state, national, international and/or the College community.

Bestowed biennially, the Shining Light Award enables Damascus to celebrate and recognise the contributions of alumni who have shined bright in their chosen field. Damascus alumni includes past students and staff of Sacred Heart, St Paul's, St Martin's in the Pines and Damascus College.

NOMINATION CRITERIA

1. The recipient must be a Damascus College Alumni, living or dead. Alumni at Damascus College are defined as past students and staff of Damascus College and its foundation colleges, Sacred Heart, St Paul's and St Martin's in the Pines.
2. Be successful in their chosen field as demonstrated by positions held, achievements, qualifications, awards/prizes/scholarships or length of service.
3. The alumni have made contributions or supported the local, state, national, international and/or the College community in ways that are inspirational or motivational.
